8. Notes for Applicants

☐ Successful applicants from the 1st round of the 2025 Fall Semester (September Admission) Special Admission for International Students cannot apply for the 2nd and 3rd rounds. Likewise, candidates who pass the 2nd round are not allowed to apply for the 3rd round.

☐ Application Method

1) Application Submission (Online): Application website / https://intl.daegu.ac.kr

2) Document Submission: After completing the online application, submit the required documents either by mail or in person (Office of International Affairs, Daegu University).

※ Be sure to thoroughly review the admission guidelines and important notes (the applicant is responsible for any issues arising from failure to review them).

☐ Current undergraduate students of Daegu University are not allowed to reapply for admission through the special admission for international students.

☐ All information in the submitted documents must be filled out completely and accurately. Once the documents are submitted, no changes or corrections can be made. Applicants are responsible for any disadvantages caused by errors or omissions in the application form and submitted documents. No changes or cancellations can be made to the submitted information.

☐ If it is found that a candidate has been admitted through fraudulent means, such as submitting forged or altered documents, the admission will be canceled.

☐ Admission will be canceled if a candidate is found to have enrolled in two or more universities at the same time.

☐ If the applicant's contact information (address and phone number) is incorrectly provided on the application form or if the university cannot reach the applicant due to failure in communication, resulting in missed notifications and cancellation of admission, the applicant is solely responsible.

☐ Even if an applicant passes the admission process and completes registration, the admission will be canceled if the relevant authorities refuse to issue a visa or if the applicant is unable to enter the country.

☐ If an applicant submitted a certificate of expected graduation at the time of application but fails to submit the official graduation certificate before enrollment, the admission will be canceled.

☐ Submitted documents will not be returned (however, considering the characteristics of certain countries, some documents such as original graduation certificates may be returned after the admission process).

☐ Applicants who are scheduled to receive a scholarship from their home government, organization, or any external institution must submit a certificate from the scholarship provider confirming the coverage of tuition fees during the study period (scholarship certificate).

☐ Applicants are responsible for confirming the visa application or change process and matters regarding the transfer of schools.

☐ Matters not specified in the admission guidelines will be conducted in accordance with the Basic Regulations for University Admissions by the Ministry of Education.

9. Notes for Successful Applicants

☐ All applicants must be covered by the university's insurances.

☐ After paying for the tuition, you must apply or change for a student visa, and after applying or changing, please submit the application confirmation form (university form) to the office of international affairs. Students are responsible for any disadvantages for not applying or changing for visas by deadlines.

[Appendix 1]

[Apostille Certificate Guide]

1. Apostille Convention: Multilateral convention that authorizes a country issuing an official document to certify the document, eliminating the need for complex certification procedures including legalization by the consul in the country of sojourn, thus facilitating the international use of official documents between signatories.
2. Documents subject to system: Foreign government-issued and notarized document
   A. Documents emanating from the State or local governments: Family relation certificates, academic transcripts issued by public schools, etc.
   B. Notarial documents: Certificates issued by private schools, medical certificates, documents issued by companies and banks, etc.
   ※ Limited to countries that are parties to the Apostille Convention (For countries not party to the convention, submission of certification documents issued by the Korean consulate in the host country or the foreign embassy in Korea)
3. Issuing Procedures: For various certificates issued by foreign schools, etc., an Apostille Certificate must be applied for and obtained from the government agency designated by the country where the school is located. (www.hcch.net)
